Located on one of the world's last outposts of virgin, natural rain-forest islands, Fortune Resort Bay Island, Port Blair overlooks the pristine blue waters of the Bay of Bengal. It is a beautiful, sea-front family resort in Port Blair, at a distance of 15 minutes from the airport and 10 minutes from the town's main shopping arcade. The hotel is built almost of the native "Padouk" wood, the beautiful red timber that is found only on the Andaman & Nicobar Islands. Designed by the late Charles Correa, the architectural style of the hotel reflects the native life of the Islands. It is the perfect getaway for guests looking for a pace that is genuine, relaxed and unhurried.
